

AGED EDITOR IS DEAD AT LIGONIER

Honorable James E. McDonald Was With Banner for Thirty Years, Associated With J. B. Stoll.

LIGONIER, Ind., Sept. 2.—Hon. James E. McDonald, editor of the Banner for 30 years, died at his summer cottage at Lake Wawasee Sunday morning. He suffered intensely for the past week. Opiates had to be administered freely in order to afford at least temporal relief.

His illness covers a full year. He went twice to Chicago to undergo an operation. But little hope being held out to him, he returned to his home the first time without being operated upon, but some weeks later a similar journey was entered upon with the determination to have his fate decided one way or another. The operation was performed but the surgeon's finding was not made known to the patient for obvious reasons. It was cancer. Intimate friends were advised of the situation, and some weeks ago the patient himself became cognizant of what was slowly but surely leading him to the end.

Born in Columbia City.
Mr. McDonald was born in Columbia City, 58 years ago. His father, Col. Isaiah B. McDonald, figured conspicuously in politics, and served with distinction in the civil war. For years he was county superintendent, and in 1870 he was elected member of the Indiana legislature. During the 80's he was elected state senator for the counties of Allen and Whitley. The junior McDonald acquired half interest in the Ligonier Banner in 1881, becoming associated with John B. Stoll, who in 1883 moved to South Bend and rehabilitated the Times. McDonald was made postmaster of Ligonier under Cleveland's first administration. Some years thereafter he was elected a member of the state board of agriculture, a position to which he was subsequently re-elected at each recurring election. He did much to make the state fair the success that it has become under progressive management.

In 1890 Mr. McDonald was elected state senator for the counties of Noble and DeKalb. He served four years.

Deputy Oil Inspector.
As a recognition of his services to Gov. Marshall, Mr. McDonald was made deputy oil inspector several years ago. His wife died all his position for the remainder of her husband's term. Had Mr. McDonald lived until next spring he would again have been appointed postmaster of Ligonier. Congressman Cline publicly announced this decision after the election of Woodrow Wilson to the presidency. Mr. McDonald several years ago held a high position in the order of Knights of Pythias. He is also prominent as an Elk. At the dedication of the Elks' temple here some time ago, Mr. McDonald left his sickbed to officiate as toastmaster at the banquet. He did this at the risk of his life, but he had himself resulted from the daring venture.

The funeral will take place from the Elks' temple Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. It will be officiated by local clergymen, John B. Stoll of South Bend will participate in the obsequies.

MILITIAMEN BACK FROM PORTER "WAR"

Everything Reported Tight, Even Saloons Being Closed, Few Horses are Left.

Company F of South Bend and Company E of Elkhart, which were on guard at the Mineral Springs race track at Porter since last Wednesday, returned Monday evening, having completed their mission of putting an end to the gambling at that place. Everything is quiet at the tracks now, reports Major Freymuth. About 50 horses are yet at the track stables and many of them will winter there. No serious trouble was experienced by the troops in controlling the situation, and they left with the "lid on tight." Even the saloons are now closed.

PIRATES AND REDS SPLIT DOUBLE BILL

Pittsburgh Drops First 5-4 on Errors —McQuillan Allows 4 Hits and Wins Second 5-1.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 2.—Pittsburgh and Cincinnati shared an even break Monday, the visitors winning the morning game 5 to 4 in ten innings and the locals the afternoon 5 to 1. Errors by Wagner and Viox in the late innings were mainly responsible for the defeat in the morning while Hendrix's wildness also helped Cincinnati. Adam had allowed Cincinnati only three hits in seven innings but with a chance to get two runs he was sacrificed in Pittsburgh's half of the inning for a pinch hitter, Hendrix, who took his place was ineffective. Packard weakened in the ninth and Miner Brown who relieved him held the locals nicely.

McQuillan held Cincinnati to four hits in the afternoon game, while Cy Morgan, the former Athletics' pitcher was hammered hard before he gave way to Johnson in the third. A walk to Dolan, a double by Carey, single by Viox and a triple by Miller gave Pittsburgh four runs in the third. Cincinnati escaped a shut out in the third when Bescher walked, scored on an out by Bates and scored on Groh's single.

MAINE CONGRESSIONAL ELECTION OF INTEREST

Will Be First Since Present Session of Democratic Majority Convened.

WATERVILLE, Me., Sept. 2.—The special congressional election in the Third Maine district to be held Sept. 8, to elect a successor to the late Rep. Forrest Goodwin, is regarded by all parties as of especial importance as it will be among the first since the present session of congress convened with its democratic majority.

On this account the campaign, which is entering upon the final week, is one of the hardest fought since the re-election of ex-Cong. Charles E. Littlefield from the Second district, was unsuccessfully opposed by Pres. Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor in 1906.

Progressives view the struggle very seriously as they believe the success of their candidate would give them precedence in the state. This phase has much to do with the intense earnestness of the contest between Edward M. Lawrence, the progressive nominee, and John A. Peters, the republican candidate.

The democratic who are seeking the election of Wm. R. Pattangall, consider that victory for him would mean an endorsement of the democratic administration and the tariff revision now in progress.

OAKLAND, Calif., Sept. 2.—Joe Azevedo fought his way to a decision over Ad Wolgast, former lightweight champion, Monday in their ten round bout here. DOES THE SUNRISE AFFECT THE STOMACH

M. B. Smith Says that Every Morning as Sun Would Come Up He Would Vomit. Ordinary Doctors Had Failed But United Doctors Give Quick Relief.

The case of Mr. M. B. Smith, of Shauk, Ohio, attracted considerable attention among the people of his vicinity on account of the peculiar symptoms and the persistence of the ailment. He says that he would vomit and gag every morning just as regular as the sun came up. Ordinary doctors could give him no relief, so he consulted the United Doctors, those expert stomach specialists, who have their South Bend Institute located on the second floor of the Toepf Building, on So. Main St. opposite the Post Office. His improvement was so rapid that he could hardly believe it possible. Now he writes the following letter of endorsement for publication: Aug. 15, 1913.

"For two years I have been troubled with stomach trouble, would vomit and gag every morning before breakfast. This happened every morning as regularly as the sun came up. Have also had trouble with my back, pain and ache continually. The pain would shoot around my waist. After two years of suffering I decided to give the United Doctors a trial. The doctor in charge at Mansfield gave me a thorough examination and promised me a cure. After one week I began to see a change, the second week only had one vomiting spell. I began to sleep better, whereas before I rolled and tossed all night long. To present date I have taken three weeks' treatment and I am thankful to say that I am improved in every way, no vomiting in the morning, very little if any pain in the back (at one time I could not sit down and bend over without hollering out) and I get a good night's rest. I am glad to have the people know this doctor has done for me. I am satisfied and can recommend them to any sufferer."

M. B. Smith, Shauk, O."

This is the way the patients talk and write after being cured by these specialists of long standing, deep seated diseases.

No charge is made for their scientific examination and consultation. They are at ways honest with the sick. If your case is beyond your help they will frankly tell you so and kindly refuse your money.

O. F. FLEENER, M. D., Expert Doctor for Men Only.

Not a Dollar Need Be Paid Unless Cured!

MEN—You have only one life to live. Why not live it in full enjoyment of vitality? To gain a cure is more important than all other earthly considerations. It means freedom from anxiety and suffering. It means a stronger hold upon life and broader field of opportunity. Many of my patients express regrets that every person who is afflicted do not know and understand what I can do for them—many report their own experiences over and over, telling why they were in doubt before they came to me, and how sorry they were that they did not sooner learn of my treatment, which was absolutely reliable. I am the only specialist in South Bend who makes no charge unless the patient is entirely satisfied with the result accomplished, and who give a written guarantee of not a cent to be paid for service if a complete and permanent cure is not effected.
